Poem

Where have gone your childhood days?
replaced with hammer as the world says.
Have you ever gone to a school?
No, you are made by others a fool.

Where have gone your million dreams?
Now seems a nightmare and utter screams.
You are too small to work at day and night
Your bloody rough hands, a horrible sight!

Seeing you working is a matter of shame
for it shows how men become morally lame.
You are denied of a meal and a shirt
Pleasure fails to find a place in your heart.

Even a proper wage you are not given while from you the playtime has taken.
Being liberated after meeting dead at an early age flew towards heaven from the unhygienic cage.

Your question how can the world be so rude implies how we are morally so nude.
You are in need of a proper education can it be a step towards your salvation?

You are neither treated socially nor emotionally
but get love by exploited mentally and physically.
If you are the future citizen and next generation
Then have your existence taken into consideration?
